Bridgepoint Consulting Welcomes Dawn Ragan as Managing Director

Austin, Texas, June 20, 2011 – Bridgepoint Consulting, LLC, a leading Austin-based professional services and consulting firm, has named Dawn Ragan, Managing Director. Ms. Ragan will join Bridgepoint's leadership team in the firm's Business Turnaround & Restructuring Services group, and work with Bridgepoint clients in restructuring, bankruptcy, and matters involving dispute resolution.

"Dawn brings not only a wealth of knowledge and expertise, but a passion for assisting clients with working through difficult situations. She is a tremendous addition to our team of professionals. Her 20+ years of working with complex bankruptcy and litigation matters is invaluable to clients who draw upon her expertise," said Bill Patterson, Bridgepoint Consulting principal. "We're excited about her adding to the depth of our talent as we serve small and middle market clients."

With over 20 years of experience in restructuring, bankruptcy, dispute resolution, and litigation, as well as experience as CRO, CFO and COO of operating companies, Ms. Ragan is skilled in quickly assessing complex situations, developing effective operational and financial restructuring solutions and managing multiple constituencies. Previously, she was a principal of a national advisory firm, a senior manager and a member of the restructuring practice of a Big Four accounting firm, vice president of a Wall Street investment bank, and served in a variety of management positions.

"I really enjoy assisting businesses in challenging times to find solutions to their problems that produce meaningful results, and provide real value for all stakeholders. With Bridgepoint, I'll be able to bring my years of experience to the small and middle market companies who are still having a difficult time in the current economy, but have been restricted in their ability to access full service financial advisory professional services firms,” said Ragan. “Whether it’s assisting company management, lending groups with distressed credits, or other stakeholders, we have the capabilities and resources to make a meaningful difference in these situations.”

Ms. Ragan has assisted companies to increase enterprise value both out-of-court and during Chapter 11 proceedings. Her client engagements have included assets and operations in China, Japan, Europe, Australia, Argentina, Mexico, Canada and the United States. She has led successful turnarounds with companies in a number of industries, including: consumer products, energy, financial services, health care, hospitality, manufacturing, real estate, restaurants, retail, technology, and transportation, among others.
